1. What is the justification for the change(s) requested?
There are few faculty with the training and availability to teach LTNO 20003, and those that teach it typically do so as an overload. For this reason, prior to Spring 2019, the course had not been offered since 2010, making it impossible for students to fulfill the Minor requirements without substitutions. Removing this requirement will make the minor degree plan more accessible.
