1. What is the justification for the change(s) requested?

Our accrediting agency, the National Association of School of Art & Design (NASAD) requires program-specific history. The ARGD History of Graphic Design course is a new class developed in this department, to replace ARHI 30833 History of Graphic Design—which is being dropped by the School of Art. The class has been taught previously for two semesters under an independent study course number.
