

CALENDAR AND PROCEDURES
FOR REVIEW OF NONTENURED TENURE TRACK FACULTY AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR TENURE AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PROMOTION & EMERITUS STATUS
2019-2020

The following deadline dates and sequence of procedures for the review of nontenured tenure track faculty and tenure/promotion recommendations have been established. Please note that these guidelines establish the university-level calendar; colleges and their academic units may have additional date and protocols. Please be sure to consult your appropriate resources.

Professors of Professional Practice and Instructors will follow applicable deadlines for promotion; however, external letters are not required at the university level for promotion of Professional Practice Track faculty. Consult appropriate college and/or School/department criteria.

Dates

Procedures

Monday, May 6

Faculty who wish to be considered for tenure and/or promotion in the upcoming tenure and promotion cycle must notify their departmental chair (or Dean in the College of Education and JVR Honors College). Faculty members wishing to be considered for emeritus/a status or departments wishing to nominate faculty members for emeritus/a status will notify their Dean.

Faculty to send departmental chair (or Dean in Neeley and the units specified above) initial documents needed for request of external letters if they are required or desired.

Provost's Office will notify departmental chairs (or Dean for the units specified above) of faculty to be considered for tenure and promotion in the upcoming academic year.

Thursday, May 30
(Or earlier if specified in a College policy)

The departmental chair (or Dean in Neeley and the units specified above) is encouraged to initiate the collection of external review letters for faculty in their final probationary year and for tenure-track or tenured faculty who wish to be considered for promotion.

The departmental chair (or Dean for the units specified above) will have initiated the collection of appropriate materials for tenure, promotion or emeritus status from all appropriate faculty in his/her department.

The faculty member may submit any other information considered relevant by the faculty member.

- Mon., September 9                      The faculty member will have submitted the materials (dossier, etc.) requested and any other information considered relevant to the appropriate departmental chair (or Dean for the units specified above).
- Mon., October 7                            The tenured faculty and departmental chair (or Dean for the units specified above) will have reviewed the materials submitted by nontenured tenure track faculty members. The University, school/college and departmental criteria statements, as appropriate, shall form the basis of review regarding progress toward tenure. For faculty in their final probationary year, a written recommendation to grant or withhold tenure will have been made by the tenured faculty to the department chair (except in the College of Education and the JVR Honors College).
- Thurs., October 10                        The departmental chair (or Dean for the units specified above) will have issued a written tenure progress report to all nontenured tenure track faculty (except faculty in their first year) with a copy to the dean who will forward to the Provost/Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. The University, school/college and departmental criteria statements, as appropriate, shall form the basis of review regarding progress toward tenure. In the year in which the tenure decision is made, the written tenure progress report for the last year will be incorporated in the written recommendation to grant or withhold tenure.
- No further additions of scholarly materials to the tenure and promotion packet normally will be accepted.
- Mon., October 14                            The departmental chair will have met with the department advisory committee and will have presented written recommendations for tenure, promotion or emeritus status along with supporting evidence (except in the College of Education and JVR Honors).
- Mon., October 21                            The department advisory committee (or tenured faculty in the COE, JVR Honors and University Programs) will have submitted in writing its judgment of the recommendations for tenure, promotion or emeritus status to the chair (or dean in the College of Education).
- Mon., October 28                            The departmental chair will have forwarded written recommendations on tenure, promotion or emeritus status and supporting evidence to the appropriate dean (except for the units specified above).
