

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE SEARCH CRITERIA

Members of the search committee will use this as a guideline to evaluate all candidates that apply for this job in order to reach a shortlist. Other interested political science faculty members are invited to use it to guide their evaluations.

Evaluator _____

TOTAL PTS. _____

RANK _____

Applicant _____

Application complete _____

Application incomplete _____

Screening Requirements

- 1) PhD Dissertation in Political Science complete or in progress
- 2) Applicant has specialization in subfield

Yes _____ No _____
Yes _____ No _____

	Range	Points
Academic Preparation and Congruence with Department (15 points)
a. Quality and Relevance of Preparation	0-10	_____
b. Congruence with department, college, and/or university culture and purpose	0-5	_____
Teaching (30 points)
a. Evidence of teaching excellence (based on: courses taught; evaluations; syllabi; teaching/goal statements; awards and recognition, etc.)	0-15	_____
b. Teaching potential (based on: experiences; letters of recommendations; teaching statement; potential curricular contributions, etc.)	0-15	_____
Research (30 points)
a. Evidence of Scholarship and Research Activity (based on: completed dissertation; refereed publications; publications under review; other publications, etc.)	0-15	_____
b. Potential for Scholarship and Research (based on: agenda as stated in research statement; works in progress; conference presentations; promise as stated in letters of recommendation, etc.)	0-15	_____
Diversity (25 points)
Potential to support development of diversity within department (based on: possible new course offerings, teaching, research and/or service; reflected in diversity statement; potential for outreach to historically disadvantaged groups, etc.)	0-25	_____
	TOTAL	_____